IMMUNITY FROM LIABILITY
FOR NEGLIGENT REFERRALS

In order to have immunity from liability, all Lawyer Referral Services in California are required to inform clients referred, the nature of any disciplinary action(s) taken against an attorney. The LRIS must determine the disciplinary status of all panel members. Also, there is no time limit on the duty to disclose disciplinary actions taken. The requirement is the result of the enactment of Assembly Bill 3335, which amended California Civil Code Sect 43.95 and added Section 23734(d) to the California Revenue and Taxation Code.

DECLARATIONS:

1. Have you ever been disciplined in this or any other jurisdiction by a state or federal licensing agency when such disciplinary action became a matter of public record?

Check one:

NOTE: If your answer is yes, by separate attachment fully disclose the nature of the disciplinary action taken; the name and location of the licensing agency involved; relevant date(s); and the ultimate disposition of the matter.

2. I hereby agree to notify the LRIS, as promptly as reasonably practicable, of any disciplinary action taken against me in the future while I am a panel member of LRIS.

I hereby declare, under penalty of perjury, that the foregoing information including any supplementary information attached is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.
